The FreshXpress moves forward with Happy Hour in D.C.

FreshXpress.com brings Fresh Forward tour to Washington D.C. for weekend of events

Columbus, Ohio–April 15, 2010–FreshXpress.com today announced that it will be taking the next phase of its Fresh Forward Tour to Washington D.C April 30 –May 1.

Fresh Forward D.C. will include a Happy Hour on Friday and a Townhall on Saturday. The FreshXpress & the Fresh Forward Project have chosen D.C. to be the debut city for the Fresh Forward Project Townhall series.

Sean Walton, Jr., CEO of the FreshXpress says Washington D.C. is the perfect place for the Fresh Forward Tour to move next .

“D.C. is where it’s at when it comes to black America. We really feel that D.C. embodies everything the FreshXpress and the Fresh Forward Project stands for, so we really want to connect with our supporters in the area,” Walton said.

The Happy Hour will be held at Tabaq Bistro on April 30 from 5:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. and will include food and drink specials. The Townhall will take place on May 1 from 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. and will include a former Obama Aid, a National Black Caucus member, Miss Black D.C. and many others as panelists.

The topic of the Townhall is Giving Back: What’s our obligation in a post-Obama America? Partners for the event include Young & Powerful Group, Live Liberty, and Impact D.C
